Woman Charged With Stealing Packages From Alhambra Home

A 20-year-old woman accused of stealing packages from an Alhambra home was charged today, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Rianna Adrienne Medina (dob 2/17/96) of Montebello has been charged with three felony counts in case GA098841: second-degree commercial burglary, identity theft and grand theft of personal property.

The defendant is scheduled to be arraigned today in Department 5 of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, Alhambra Branch. Prosecutors will ask that bail be set at $90,000.

Prosecutors said on May 10 an Alhambra resident walked up to his home and discovered Medina allegedly stealing packages from his porch.

The homeowner video recorded Medina as he confronted her walking away with the packages, prosecutors said. The defendant then allegedly dropped the packages and ran away, prosecutors added.

On May 12, Medina reportedly checked into a motel in Rosemead using another person's identification, according to prosecutors.

The next day, Alhambra police were surveilling the area near the motel when they spotted Medina and she was arrested, prosecutors said.

If convicted as charged, the defendant faces a maximum possible sentence of four years and four months in state prison.

The case is being investigated by the Alhambra Police Department.
